

Please do not give our cell phone numbers to solicitors. I have a sick husband and a very sick daughter. I use the phone mostly for emergencies either at home or at my daughter's house.

It really would distress me to have to loose my free minutes for someone to annoy me with phone calls that I do not want to receive in the first place.

Thank you,

Marita Grzechowiak